- 12) the defendant shall not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or a special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the court; and
- 13) as directed by the probation officer, the defendant shall notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by the defendant's criminal record or personal history or characteristics and shall permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm the defendant's compliance with such notification requirement.

DEFENDANT: ESMOND ELCOCK, Jr.CASE NUMBER: S2 07 CR 582-01*ADDITIONAL SUPERVISED RELEASE TERMS

The Court recommends that the defendant be supervised by the district of residence. The defendant is to participate in a program approved by the United States Probation Office for substance abuse, which program will include extensive drug testing to determine whether the defendant has reverted to the use of drugs and alcohol. The Court authorizes the release of available drug treatment evaluations and reports to the substance abuse treatment provider, as approved by the Probation Department. The defendant will be required to contribute to the cost of services rendered in the amount to be determined by the Probation Officer, based on ability to pay or availability of third party payment.

Payment of the $1,245,255 in restitution and the $200 special assessment is a condition of defendant's supervised release. The defendant will provide the Probation Department with any and all requested financial information and shall not open any new lines of credit, or incur any new charges, while their remains an outstanding balance on the criminal monetary penalties. Defendant is to notify the U.S. Attorney's Office and the United States Probation Department of any change in address.
